RUDE AWAKENING FOR LOVE'S YOUNG DREAM

Eloping Pair From Pulaski Caught Here By Irate Parent Before Gretna Green Reached.

Love's young dream had a rude awakening for Luther Ashley and Miss Nellie Jackson, a couple of tender years of Science Hill, Pulaski county, who drove through to Stanford Tuesday night, intending to catch a train here and his way to Jeffersonville, Indiana, at which celebrated Gretna Green they intended to be married. Ashley is only 20 and his prospective bride but 15, and her mother objected strenuously to the marriage. Late that night Marshall B. D. Carter was telephoned by the mother, Mrs. Marian Jackson, from Science Hill, who asked him to make search for her runaway daughter and place her under arrest if found here. Marshall Carter had no trouble locating the young Lochinvar and his sweet-heart, for they were sitting out the night at the L. & N. depot waiting the arrival of the northbound train, due at 4:20 A. M., which would take them on to Louisville and Jeffersonville. They had placed the double team in which they had driven across country in a livery stable.

Young Ashley made a strenuous effort to induce the officer of the law to permit them to go on their way rejoicing, but he could not be persuaded to relinquish his duty even at the dulcet call of the God of Love. So he took the girl to his home, where she remained with Mrs. Carter during the rest of the night, while the dejected near-groom went to a hotel. He declared, however, that they might as well be permitted to be married in peace, for they would eventually wed, and it was simply a question of how soon.

Mrs. Jackson telephoned Marshall Carter to meet her at Junction City with the girl Wednesday morning, and there she took her daughter with her for a visit to Indiana, but not to Jeffersonville. Ashley dejectedly went on his way back to the hills of Pulaski county.

Odd Fellows

Interested In Orphans Home Rally At Lexington Late In April.

Local Odd Fellows are interested in the Orphans Home Rally Day, which will be held in Lexington April 26th. This is the anniversary of the founding of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and it was deemed appropriate that the Orphan's Home Rally Day be set for a celebration of the anniversary of the founding of the order.

This order which now has more than a million and a half members, was founded in Baltimore in 1819, by five men and all the lodges in this State have been asked to initiate at least five men on the day mentioned as the anniversary of the founding of the order and also as Orphan's Home Rally Day. Grand Master I. N. Williams and Grand Secretary R. G. Elliott are very busy at Lexington preparing for this celebration. A number of local Odd Fellows will attend.

Fearful Crime in Bourbon.

Miss Nora B. Rainey, the 15-year-old daughter of Dad Rainey, is in a critical condition at her father's home near North Middletown, in Bourbon county, as a result of an alleged assault upon her Monday. She says she was walking along the road going home, when a stranger caught up with her in a buggy and asked her if she wanted to ride. She accepted his offer to take her home and as soon as she got in the vehicle she was seized and drugged. "She was found unconscious several hours later in a woodland, with her clothing nearly torn off, her hair cut off and her body mutilated and cut. She was able to give a good description of the man and the officers are scouring the country in an effort to capture him. That whole end of the county is highly excited over the crime and if the man is caught and identified he will likely be summarily dealt with.

The Lash of A Fiend.

would have been about as welcome to A. Cooper, of Oswego, N. Y., as a mercurial lung-racking cough that defied all remedies for years. "It was most troublesome at night," he writes, "nothing helped me till I used Dr. King's New Discovery which cured me completely. I never cough at night now." Millions know its matchless merit for stubborn colds, obstinate coughs, sore lungs, grippe, asthma, hemorrhage, croup, whooping cough, or hay fever. It relieves quickly and never fails to satisfy. A trial convinces. 50c. $1. Trial bottle free. It's positively guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store.

Women Called to Meet

Monday Afternoon to Form Civic Organization.

As forecasted in the last issue of the I. J., several prominent women of the Stanford churches have issued a call for a mass meeting of the women of the city Monday afternoon for the purpose of forming an organization, whose purpose shall be the betterment of civic conditions in the city. The call as issued reads as follows:

THE CALL.

All the matrons and maidens of Stanford who are interested in their town, their neighbors or themselves will meet at the Christian church Sunday-school room on Monday afternoon at 2:30, April 11th, to organize an Improvement Club, auxiliary to the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs. The work of the club will be explained and names taken for membership. After their meeting the members will be elected by ballot.

Mrs. W. D. Walker, Mrs. J. J. Hickey, Mrs. E. M. McRoberts, Mrs. J. C. McClary.

Dr. Crossfield

To Speak At C. E. Convention To Be Held At Crab Orchard.

The Eighth District Christian Endeavor Convention convenes at Crab Orchard Saturday and Sunday, April 2 and 3. Many C. E. workers from Stanford and other parts of the county will be present as well as others from over the district. The convention promises to be a largely attended one and productive of much good to the cause.

An interesting feature of the session will be an address by Dr. R. H. Crossfield, president of Transylvania University, Lexington.

Garrard Combatants Indicted.

The Garrard county grand jury has returned indictments against Frank Turner and Gilbert Turner, Jr., and Luther Ray. The Turners are charged with malicious shooting and Ray with manslaughter.

Ray is recovering and is indicted on the charge of killing Turner, and the two Turners are charged with firing at Ray. Warrants for the arrest of the three men were issued. Ray is still confined to his home and will not be placed in custody until he recovers sufficiently to be taken in court.

The indictment against Frank Turner came as a surprise, as no evidence was secured at the coroner's inquest indicating that he took part in the bloody affray.

Big Fire At Lawrenceburg.

Fire broke out in the barn of the Burley Tobacco Company at Lawrenceburg Tuesday afternoon, entailing a loss of $51,000. Nearly 200,000 pounds of tobacco were burned, at a loss of about $30,000, fully covered by insurance. The main part of the Lawrenceburg Supply Co. was destroyed with a loss of $15,000, partially covered. A. Hawkins & Co., Lexington Brewery Co., Southern Railway Co., and S. R. Howser suffered a loss of $6,000, with only partial insurance.

Judge Bell May Run.

Former Circuit Judge W. Con Bell, of Mercer county, is the latest known aspirant for a democratic nomination for State office. Judge Bell wants the nomination for attorney general of Kentucky. Several weeks ago he made a trip to Washington to confer with Congressman Johnson and other members of the Kentucky delegation relative to his proposed candidacy. He also spent some days here before the close of the General Assembly, and dropped it to one or more close friends that he would get in if the sign was right.—Frankfort Journal.

Are Through Plowing.

G. A. Brown and Thomas Owens, of near Preachersville, were in town Wednesday. They say that the farmers in that section are much more forward in their work than others. They are all through plowing and getting ready to put in big crops. Much tobacco will be raised in the Preachersville end of Lincoln, and also over in Garrard, they say.

A Man of Iron Nerve.

Indomitable will and tremendous energy are never found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills, the matchless regulators for keener brain and stronger body. 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

CONLEY GETS CONTRACT FOR NEW SIDEWALKS

But Many Property Owners Had Already Arranged For Local Firm To Do The Work.

The City Council held a special session Tuesday night and opened bids for the laying of concrete sidewalks on Main street from Depot street, past the Presbyterian church, where over such sidewalks have not been laid by the property owners and accepted by the city. Phillips Bros. and the Conley Construction Company, of Somerset, were the only bidders, and the latter was successful on its bid of 16 1/2 cents per square foot. A number of property owners, however, had already made contracts with Phillips Bros., and stated that they wished his pavement, so the council voted to accept the work the local firm would do for the property owners who preferred it. Some criticism was made of the pavements which the Conley people have laid on certain streets here, the statement being made that in one place it is possible to dig rocks out of the concrete with a stick, while on another street practically every square of pavement has cracked. Mr. Conley, who was present, said that he had made ample bond to the city to guarantee his work, and that he intended to relay that portion of pavement that had shown much cracking.

It was agreed that no pavement will be put down in front of the court house until the contractors are through with the building operations and regrading of the yard.

Mayor A. B. Florence presided over the council meeting, with Councilmen J. A. Allen, M. D. Elmore, E. T. Pence and W. K. Shugars present.

Court at Mt. Vernon

Bobbett Incongruously Discusses Officials and Affairs.

MT. VERNON, MAR. 26th. Dear INTERIOR JOURNAL:—I am back again at dear old Mt. Vernon, attending court. Judge Bethurum presides with dignity and ability. His instructions to the grand jury, the strongest, ablest and most thorough to which my admiring attention was ever given. How proud I am of those two boys, Leonard and Burgess! It may well be said of them par nobis fratrum. A nobler, grander pair of brothers never walked among men. Both of them married relatives of mine on the Stigall side of my house. All the big, grand people of this beautiful mountain town are related to me. As for me I reflect more glory upon my relatives than I can inherit from them. Bonaparte said this before I did, and it is pardonable in both of us.

The Commonwealth's attorney, Judge Jarvis, is upon the throne of greatness as well now as when he once adorned the bench. My cousin, Hugh Miller, as circuit court clerk, is only equalled by my nephew of Lincoln, Jas. F. Holdam. The new sheriff has the right name—Nicky. I am under many obligations to the Rev. John Elder and his congregation for the sincere and copious tears they shed over my bier Sunday, when it was announced that I had been killed at Crab Orchard Saturday in open court, shot five times. It was like Brutus showing and commenting on Caesar's wounds. What a great glory to live after death in the fond memory of friends!

Mrs. McKee

Prominent Woman Passes Away At Kings Mountain.

Mrs. Mary McKee died at the home of her son, J. B. McKee, in the Kings Mountain section and her body was shipped to Cynthiana for burial on Wednesday. Mrs. McKee was in her 76th year and was one of the best known and most highly esteemed women in that part of the county. She was long a faithful member of the Presbyterian church, and beloved by all who knew her. She is survived by her husband, J. A. McKee, who is in his 81st year, and a prominent and respected citizen.

Don't Break Down.

Severe strains on the vital organs, like straining machinery, cause break downs. You can't over-tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run-down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters the matchless tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E. Van de Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., writes: "That I did not break down, while enduring a most severe strain, for three months, is due wholly to Electric Bitters." Use them and enjoy health and strength. Satisfaction positively guaranteed. 50c at Penny's Drug Store.

BUILDERS WILL BE BUSY HERE THIS SPRING

Several New Residences and Business Houses Planned—Rowland Wants Tobacco Warehouse.

A business boom of mammoth proportions seems likely to hit Stanford with the advent of spring. Several citizens are planning to build residences, while plans are going on for the erection of the large tobacco warehouse of which W. P. Kincaid told in the I. J. several weeks ago. The site for it has not yet been determined. A free location was offered at Rowland by the bustling citizens of that little burg, but it is hardly probable that Rowland will secure it.

Denham Bros. are preparing to erect a large coal and feed warehouse off the railroad, near their house on lower E. Main street. They will have a spur track built to the warehouse from the railroad and will handle a lot of their big business in this warehouse.

J. C. Rubanks has had plans made for the erection of four buildings and a boxing alley on the old Christian church property on Depot street. The old building, which has been a landmark in Stanford for many years, will soon be torn down, and slightly modern business houses replace it.

Logan Hughes is planning to build a handsome, two-story frame residence on his lot, on the old Hill property on East Main street. J. A. Allen will put up a nice frame cottage on Logan ave., and Will Stone is planning to build a nice one on one of his lots on Portman avenue.

"Gabe" Addams

Tipped For Clerkship of Penitentiary at Twelve Hundred Per

A tip is out in Frankfort that A. Addams, of the Crab Orchard section of this county, more familiarly known as "Gabe," will be appointed clerk of the penitentiary at Frankfort, to succeed W. S. Hawkins, who has resigned. Mr. Addams was a tentative candidate for prison commissioner, but withdrew in favor of the present commissioners, and the appointment in this office, which pays $1,200 a year, will be made by them.

Noted Kentucky Lawyer Dead.

James Pendleton Helm, one of the most noted lawyers in Kentucky, died at his home in Louisville on Tuesday morning of chronic heart disease. Mr. Helm was 60 years of age. He was born in Hardin county, near Elizabethtown, in January, 1850. His father, the late John L. Helm, was elected governor of Kentucky in 1865. His mother was the daughter Ben Hardin, who was one of the most famous attorneys Kentucky has ever known. Mr. Helm's father became fatally ill before the inauguration and the oath of office was given Gov. Helm on the deathbed at the family home near Elizabethtown. Mr. Helm's elder brother, Gen. Ben Hardin Helm, was commander of the Confederate First Kentucky Brigade, better known as the Orphan Brigade. Gen. Helm was a brother-in-law of Abraham Lincoln, they having married sisters. Gen. Helm was killed at the battle of Chickamauga.

Justice Brewer Dead.

WASHINGTON, D. C. March 31.—Justice David J. Brewer, of the U. S. Supreme Court, died suddenly Monday night from a stroke of apoplexy. He had not been in good health for some time, but was still able to be up and attend to work. He went to the bathroom and in a moment after his wife heard a heavy fall and when she reached the bathroom found him an expiring condition on the floor. He was never conscious and breathed but a few times after she reached him. He was 73 years old.

I. J. Ad. Did It.

M. S. Baughman's fine Shepherd dog was found in the Jumbo section. He says that his lost ad in the I. J. certainly did him work. He thinks everyone in 10 counties who saw a stray dog called him up about it, as a result of the little ad.

Good Work Appreciated

Stanford School Selected as County School For Four Years.

The Lincoln county board of education met in Stanford this week and selected the Stanford Graded and High School as the county high school for a term of four years. A rate of $3.50 per pupil for those attending, who live outside of the Stanford Graded School district, was agreed upon by the members of the county board and the trustees of the city school, instead of the flat rate of $1,000 which has been paid per season by the county board hitherto. The past year has been a most successful one for the High School and the members of the county board appear well pleased with the work which has been accomplished.

LONG SLUMBERING FEUD BREAKS OUT

Attorneys Bobbitt And Culton Finally Appeal to Force to Settle Old Scores.

The court of Squire K. D. Noaker, at Crab Orchard, was greatly disturbed last week by an altercation between Fontaine Fox Bobbitt, (known as the "Cicero of the Mountains"), and T. J. Culton, known in Knox county as the "Slippery Elm of the Cumberland.") Shortly after the civil war a dispute arose between the families of the Bishops and Brummetts on Negro Creek, the dividing line between Lincoln and Rockcastle counties, over a division fence. Since war was first declared between these families, nearly every Saturday in a justice's court, in either Lincoln or Rockcastle, they have had a law suit, with Bobbitt and Culton as their lawyers. At one term "Cicero" represents the Bishops and the "Slippery Elm" the Brummetts; the next time the "Cicero" the Brummetts and the "Slippery Elm" the Bishops. About once a month these attorneys sue their clients for past fees. It was at one of these trials when the greatest fight that has ever taken place in old Crab Orchard occurred. As usual between gifted attorneys, great and mighty questions were discussed. As neither lawyer had any law books on hand, the court had to take their word. When Culton disputed Bobbitt's word, he said: "How dare you dispute the true word of a statesman; one whose voice has been heard in the halls of the Kentucky Legislature, and one whom fate has decreed shall soon retire the 'Tall, Knotty Buckeye of the St. Asaph' from Kentucky?"

"What care I for that?" said Culton. "I, too, am of royal blood! I was once county attorney of Knox county; sat as special judge in several noted cases and am soon to be census enumerator for this magisterial district!"

Said Bobbitt—"My ancestry fought at Bannockburn."

Said Culton—"Mine bled at London-derry."

Then said Bobbitt—"You will bleed right here," and took him one on the nose. Then at it they went. Greek had met Greek. It was evident that York should contend against Lancaster. There was no white or red rose on either knight, yet Culton went off with a red nose and Bobbitt with a black eye. Those present at court stood back and watched an encounter in which as much valor was shown as when Clay stood before Randolph, or when Dickinson went down before "Old Hickory."

When they were finally separated, the court-room fairly reeked with brimstone.

Col. Bobbitt will soon open his campaign for Congress as an independent candidate in the 5th district. Mr. Culton is a republican leader, very popular with the masses. To whom his influence will go in the coming contest is not known. We predict that these knights will bury the hatchet and in the future will be friends.

A FRIEND OF THE COMBATANTS.

Bobbitt's Side of Argument.

MT. VERNON, KY. Mch. 31. EDITOR INTERIOR JOURNAL:—Some mistakes are being circulated abroad in regard to the fierce and sudden fight between myself and a brother lawyer in magistrate's court at Crab Orchard on March 26. I want to state that no one was seriously hurt except the court fined each belligerent $5. In the fiercest part of battle I felt backward over a chair and my ungallant foe attempted to spread his huge form over me like a South American vampire. I attempted in self-defense to deal my foe a few vigorous kicks, but I did not break two of his ribs, as reported. What I did was entirely in my necessary self defense, and I do not think that the injuries inflicted would justify the damage suit which I fear is threatened. I deny being knocked down, but if I was, any other man could have struck as heavy a blow. It was a long-armed Hercules fighting a Lilliputian. I have no bruises, no scratches, and am perfectly satisfied with the fight; and also won the law suit. I hope when the court hears our apologies he will say: "Go and fight no more."

MANY people have asked us why we preferred to quit our work on a daily paper, forsake the bright lights of a larger city and return to run a "country paper" in a "country town." We have tried to explain in our own way just how we have felt about it. The New York Evening Mail recently told of a somewhat similar case, which gives our view of the matter pretty well. The Mail said: Those of us engaged in newspaper work in New York have an idea sometimes that we are really very big. Once in a while, however, we have the conceit taken out of us by meeting some owner of a country newspaper, who, having tried New York newspaper work, having learned a lot by his experience, sought new pastures where people live as human beings should—getting more sunlight and more air than they do in New York.

Francis Leon Chrisman was a special newspaper correspondent in New York many years ago. He decided that Montclair, N. J., only 13 miles out of New York—would be a good town in which to print a weekly, human-interest newspaper. He owns a fine building now—has a good job printing establishment—publishes a weekly paper that is filled with advertising—is a great deal better off financially than nineteen-twentieths of the workers in the newspaper field in New York.

It is a great privilege, of course, to be on a New York newspaper, because, if a man keeps his eyes open, and listens attentively, he acquires a knowledge that he cannot get anywhere else on earth, but, after he has acquired it, unless he becomes editor-in-chief of a newspaper, or a famous "special" he cannot make nearly as much money as he can by running a country newspaper, nor will he get out of life as much peace and comfort as he does by being his own proof-reader, his own news gatherer, his own editor, his own advertising solicitor, his own collector. He has no boss but himself.

EVERY woman who wants to see this city made cleaner, prettier and a better place to live in, should attend the meeting which has been called for Monday afternoon. There's mighty little in this world that can resist the united forces of the women. They can do a world of good in any city where their energies are united, and the effecting of such an organization is the first step. And the men ought to get busy about that Commercial Club, also. The old town's a-booming along every line. Strike while the iron is hot.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL.

Health Is Worth Saving And
Some Stanford People Know
How To Save It.

Many Stanford people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. The following statement leaves no ground for doubt:

Mrs. B. F. Walter, Hill Street, Lancaster, Ky., says:
"I never fail to praise Doan's Kidney Pills when I have the opportunity, as they are certainly an excellent remedy. I have not been without a supply in the house for years. When ever my back becomes lame and painful, a few doses bring me instant relief. At one time I feared that I had serious kidney trouble. The kidney secretions were unnatural and gave unmistakable evidence of disordered kidneys. At that time it was my good fortune to hear of Doan's Kidney Pills and I began their use. In a short time my kidneys were restored to a normal condition."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cts. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

KENTUCKY SCHOOLS.
Oh, hail us, Kentucky students!
We bear a message, a jolly band;
We fly the banner of "Education"
To ev'ry hamlet in Dixie land.
A school bell from ev'ry blitop
Shall start the echoes!—a wise God rules!

From Sandy river, on, on to Mills Point
We ring our slogan "Kentucky Schools!"

Chorus.
Kentucky school boys! Kentucky school girls!
Kentucky schools! Kentucky schools!
K-e-n-tuck-ee!

Oh, hail us, Kentucky students!
We love Kentucky, oh, home so dear;
Proud is her record in song and story
Her sleeping heroes we e'er revere.
But hear us, ye proud Kentucky!
To arms, awake ye! A call for schools
Strike for your children, for home, for for honor!

And join our slogan, "Kentucky
Schools!"
Oh, hail us, Kentucky students!
Our girls are charming, our boys are true;
We fly "Old Glory," with "Education."
The jolly students, a fearless crew,
Our mothers have 'listed with us,
In forward movement for better
schools;
"We stand united, we fall divided,"
So join our slogan, "Kentucky
Schools!"

Follow this advice.

Quaker Oats is the best of all foods; it is also the cheapest. When such men as Prof. Fisher of Yale University and Sir James Crichton Browne, LL.D.-F.R.S., of London spend the best parts of their lives in studying the great question of the nourishing and strengthening qualities of different foods, it is certain that their advice is absolutely safe to follow.

Professor Fisher found in his experiments for testing the strength and endurance of athletes that the meat eaters were exhausted long before the men who were fed on such food as Quaker Oats. The powers of endurance of the non-meat eaters were about eight times those of the meat eaters.

Sir James Crichton Browne says—eat more oatmeal, eat plenty of it and eat it frequently.

How To Collect Your Notes and Accounts.

How can I collect what is owing me? This is the all important question with every merchant, wholesale firm, business and professional men, farmers—and, in fact, every one—to-day. Never has the question been so prominent in the business world as it is today. The loss of a few accounts may eat up your profits in business: the failure to collect a note makes you that much poorer; not being able, or in a position, to give the proper attention, knowledge or experience to the adjustment or examination into some claim in which you have an interest may cause you the loss of many dollars. Our province and our business is to help you in these matters. Whether it is a NOTE or ACCOUNT you are not able to collect; or whether it is some claim in which you have an interest which needs looking into carefully, we are prepared to do it, and do it promptly. This is our business; we make it a study: We have the facilities and we have the experience, and the fact that we have collected many dollars which were given up as lost, is one of our best arguments in favor of what we can do. Our terms are reasonable, and we make no charges unless we collect. We make collections anywhere in the United States. We recently collected an account for a firm in the adjoining county against a man in California. If you have a claim which needs looking after, or a note or account which you want collected, no matter how large or how small, or where the parties live, send it to us. We solicit your business. "Old Sam," the old gray horse which has been in the Shanks family for almost a quarter of a century, died at the home of Mrs. Lou Shanks this week. 1st dam Baby Pence, sired by Enoch Arden, 2nd dam Lady Pence by Almont Forest 2863, 3rd dam by Garrard Chief.

He is a beautiful bay 15½ hands high four years of age. He has more natural action than any horse living, and from his success as a show horse in his three year old form bids fair to make a greater show horse than his grand old sire, being undefeated in his class as a three year old and always getting his part in the stakes against the crack show horses of 1909.

This great young stallion will make the season of 1910 at the stock yards of A. T. Nunneley, Stanford Ky., at the reasonable figure of $25 to insure a living colt. Mares kept at $2.50 per month, and not responsible for accident or escape. Season due when mares are parted with or sent to other stock.

Winning at all the Kentucky fairs and also at the horse shows at Buffalo, N. Y., St. Louis Mo., and Kansas City.

Sired by Washington No. 54, first dam Bell by Rhoderick, No. 104, second dam by Denmark.

Preston is a brown horse 15 3/4 hands high with fine style and very high action. He has not only proven himself to be a great show horse, but also a great breeder. He is the sire of Carroll Preston owned by W. O. Walker of Stanford, Ky., for which he refused $3,500 last season when he was only 3 years of age.

He is the grand sire of Diana of the Lee, a winner at Madison Square Garden last Fall, for Lawrence Jones who paid $5,500 for her, also a grand sire of Queen of the Night that sold in N. Y., March 14 1910 for $850.

Preston will make the season of 1910 at my stable in Crab Orchard Ky., at the reasonable figure of $20 to insure a living colt. Will keep mares on grass at $2.50 per month but will not be responsible for accident or escape of stock. Season is due if mare is traded or parted with or bred to other stock.
